Dreamland's Biograph, "To Save Her Soul," takes the lead to-day in popular pictures. It is the romance of a little school singer and is wonderfully full of human interest. Nowadays a real western picture of life as it used to be out there several years ago, and as it is to-day in some remote parts, is always interesting. Doubtless so is the "Mexican Crime," which is being presented to-night at the Bijou theatre. The program offered to-night will be considerably different than that given last night, this being done so that those who attended last night could witness a different performance to-night.
